Good morning Tim,

When I volunteered for the MCC it was with all good intentions. Unfortunately, I'm realizing that my life just seems too busy right now to contribute to the level I would like to. For example, my husband left yesterday for a week long business trip, leaving me with getting both kids to tryouts and practices tonight. Two weeks ago he was also away on business and the kids were sick. I am not the type of person who does things half a#$ and I feel like I'm not being fair to the MCC by occupying an alternate seat that someone else may want. For these reasons, I am bowing out of my alternate seat with the MCC. I greatly appreciate the opportunity to participate. Thank you for all you do.

Kristi Bradshaw
